

LEXUS NX TO BE AVAILABLE AS SPORT EDITION

- ∞ Third Lexus Sport edition joins CT and IS Sport models
- ∞ Bespoke design features to underline the sporting character of the NX
- ∞ NX Sport edition to be launched in Europe from October 2016

Following the success of the Lexus CT and IS Sport editions, the brand's mid-size Crossover, the NX, will also be equipped with the Sport package.

Available on the NX 300h and NX 200t models, the Sport edition includes exclusive exterior and interior visual design features, while the F SPORT grade additionally provides dynamic enhancements and more aggressive styling.

The NX Sport features Black alloy 18" wheels, Black capped door mirrors, and a Black finish to the spindle grille and its frame.

The NX Sport interior is finished with an exclusive choice of fabric or synthetic leather seats, both available in Black and Garnett with silver inserts.

Exclusive to the Business and Comfort grades, the Sport edition aims at increasing the accessibility of the NX's sporting design enhancements.

The NX Sport edition will be available in most European countries from October 2016.
